COUNCIL PRESIDENT PRO TEM WHITBURN TAKES SEAT ON SAN DIEGO COUNTY AIR POLLUTION CONTROL DISTRICT BOARD

SAN DIEGO, CA – Today, Council President Pro Tem Stephen Whitburn was sworn in as a governing board member for the San Diego County Air Pollution Control District. Appointed to the board by Mayor Todd Gloria, Council President Pro Tem Whitburn will serve as the City of San Diego's Member At Large.

The Air Pollution Control District works to ensure that commercial, industrial, transportation, and agricultural businesses are permitted and comply with air pollution control laws. The agency also incentivizes cleaner technologies by offering grant funds to support those measures.

"The work of the Air Pollution Control District is vital to ensuring the health and safety of our air, our planet, and ultimately, the citizens of San Diego County," said Council President Pro Tem Whitburn. "I look forward to serving on the agency's governing board to ensure that their important work continues and to utilize this opportunity to work together with all of our regional partners to achieve our climate action goals."

In appointing Council President Pro Tem Whitburn to the board, Mayor Gloria said:

"Council President Pro Tempore Whitburn has an extensive background in strategic planning and organizational management. His history of service to our city includes serving on multiple advisory panels for the City and County of San Diego. As the Chair of the Council's Land-Use and Housing Committee, I am confident he will bring a needed and unique perspective to the APCD on behalf of the City."

Councilmember Sean Elo-Rivera was also appointed by Mayor Gloria to serve on the board, representing the 4th District Supervisorial District. Both Councilmember Elo-Rivera and Council President Pro Tem Whitburn were appointed to full 4-year terms, expiring in 2025.
